Voices is a brand new band featuring some of the most established musicians of the Italian music scene. Voices proposes a repertoire of original compositions by the four members of the group.

The music of Voices encompasses melodic lyricism, variety of timbre, contrapuntal episodes, all linked together by a strong and active listening on stage. From jazz in its purest form, song writing, Brazilian influences, and even serial music, Voices is able to express a truly diverse universe of sounds and colors.

Andrea Dulbecco has toured the world as a classical contemporary vibraphonist also performing with equal success in the jazz scene

Giovanni Ceccarelli is a Grammy Nominated artist with extensive credits as a performer and producer

Salvatore Maiore has played on over fifty recordings with credits including legendary music label ECM

Paolo Orlandi has built his career in the US, playing drums with some of the most influential musicians in the jazz world
